DEAR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS,

My constituent service offices in Harrisburg and Scranton – 409 North Main Ave. in Jays Commons – are here to help you with any state government-related matter you may have.

In fact, my Scranton office even has a drive-thru window to make accessing the office even easier.

As you may know, last year I began my constituent outreach program, offering monthly office hours in each of the municipalities within the 113th Legislative District – Throop, Moosic, South Abington, Taylor and Clarks Green.

The program aims to make it more convenient to obtain first-rate, convenient services for those who find it difficult to visit my full-time constituent service office in Jays Commons. The program also is designed to avoid the increased costs of operating additional full-time offices.

During the rest of this year, we'll continue offering hours from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the municipal buildings and dates listed in the handy color-coded calendar on the other side of this mailing. I tried to make the size convenient for you to keep on your refrigerator or coffee table.

Please take a look at the list of the full range of services available at my offices and call or stop by for help with any state-related concern. I'd also like to remind you of my toll-free number (1-877-841-1450) where you can reach my Harrisburg office for assistance.

Sincerely,
