Weatherization & Energy Workshop

Saturday, January 21
10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

New Pathways for Women
2539 Germantown Ave.
(Germantown Ave. & Cumberland Street)

Do you have trouble paying your utility bills?

Are you confused or don't know which services to apply for? This workshop has the answers.

Oil prices are too high and I need help!

Do you feel like you've gotten the runaround or a constant recording? We'll be there live with LIHEAP.

Do you have leaking faucets? Are you losing heat in your home?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, you may want to attend this Weatherization and Energy Workshop being hosted by State Rep. W. Curtis Thomas.

The following agencies will be on hand to offer information and some on-site applications will be taken:

Philadelphia Gas Works, Public Utilities Commission, PECO Energy, LIHEAP, Energy Coordinating Agency, Philadelphia Corporation for Aging.

Please bring utility bills, proof of income, social security information for all members of the household.

PLEASE CALL TO CONFIRM YOUR SPACE IN THE PLACE
