Presents

186th Student Achievement College Fair

in conjunction with the School District of Philadelphia

Saturday, November 14, 2009

10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

G.W. Childs School

1541 S. 17th St., Philadelphia

I invite all students to join me for the 186th District Student Achievement College Fair, featuring representatives from 30 colleges and universities, including State System of Higher Education schools AND Historically Black College and Universities (HBCU).

The event will feature workshops for students AND parents about choosing the right college, applying to college, applying for financial aid and scholarships, and much more!
