

Representatives from Hope for Veterans will return to Rep. Samuelson's Bethlehem office in September to provide information on social services, housing and financial help available to low-income veterans and their families. Please check back on this website or call the office at 610-867-3890 for more information.