Sen. Wayne Fontana

Rep. Dan Deasy and Rep. Anita Astorino Kulik and Sen. Wayne Fontana are joining Building Bridges for Business and U.S. Probation & PreTrial Services to host this event in an effort to help job seekers. The event will feature local companies looking to fill positions now. We urge anyone looking for employment to attend this event!

Representatives will also be on hand to talk about apprenticeships and other technical training programs to help individuals gain information on acquiring new skills to become gainfully employed.

OVERCOMING BARRIERS TO EMPLOYMENT

ATTEND JOB FAIR'S BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Many job seekers face barriers to employment. Some of those barriers deal with issues related to a past criminal record, issues with transportation because of a suspended driver's license, or lack of a high school diploma (GED) or necessary job skills.

ATTEND ONE OR ALL OF THE FOLLOWING BREAKOUT SESSIONS:

4:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Driver's License Restoration Process
Presenter: U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services

5:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Pardon & Record Expungement
Presenters: U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services & Building Bridges for Business

6:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Improving Job Skills & Short Term Training Programs
Presenter: Building Bridges for Business
