Incarcerated Women’s Act
We pushed to enact the Incarcerated Women’s Act, treating women equitably in our prison system. Unions lifted my mother out of poverty. Advancement a reality. How do I know? Help close pay gaps, and make career advancement a reality. I held a public hearing further crippling our efforts is the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. A full time in the commonwealth lose a paycheck. Women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated as equals.

I travel across the commonwealth, give girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Girls of Color Subcommittee of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus. As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I led a public hearing at District 1199 Union Hall to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME.

3rd Annual Youth Employment Workshops Saturday, Feb. 9 & 16 10 a.m. – 1 p.m. Please call the office for details: (215) 879-6625

Upcoming Events
Mark your calendar!
Martin Luther King Day of Celebration Jan. 21 Stay tuned for more details.

My office can help you with:
• Car registrations, special tags, titles and license applications
• Information on financial assistance for higher education
• Unemployment compensation problems
• Birth certificate applications
• Pennsylvania income tax problems
• Disability plates and placards
• Questions with the Department of Human Services (food stamps, income assistance)
• Consumer complaints
• Complaints or questions about utilities and the PUC
• Complaints about state road conditions
• Questions about PennDOT
• PAC cards for senior citizens
• Complaints and questions with insurance companies
• Property Tax/Realtor problems or questions
• Questions about the state lottery
• Local government officials’ problems with state agencies

Produce
645 Senior Produce Vouchers

SEPTA
5,098 SEPTA Senior ID Cards

My office can help you with:
• Consumer complaints
• Questions with the Department of Transportation
• Questions about PennDOT
• Questions about state road conditions
• Questions about the state lottery
• Local government officials’ problems with state agencies

I worked closely with the Philadelphia Delegation and our colleagues across the aisle to protect our neighborhoods from stop-and-go by implementing a law to better crackdown on these nuisance establishments. (See page 2 for breakout of law.) I brought the Democratic Policy Committee to Philadelphia and the surrounding areas to discuss expanding protections for union families, existing easement reserves for students and providing dignity for incarcerated women. Know that you continue to be my top priority, and moving forward, we're not letting off the gas pedal.

I proudly held my hand high as I was officially sworn into office on Jan. 1, 2019. I now enter my second term to continue fighting for you and your family in Harrisburg. I greatly value my time as a public servant and I will keep pushing foradequate education funding and jobs that provide a livable wage.

I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I travel across the commonwealth, give girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

My office can help you with:
• Consumer complaints
• Questions with the Department of Transportation
• Questions about PennDOT
• Questions about state road conditions
• Questions about the state lottery
• Local government officials’ problems with state agencies

I worked closely with the Philadelphia Delegation and our colleagues across the aisle to protect our neighborhoods from stop-and-go by implementing a law to better crackdown on these nuisance establishments. (See page 2 for breakout of law.) I brought the Democratic Policy Committee to Philadelphia and the surrounding areas to discuss expanding protections for union families, existing easement reserves for students and providing dignity for incarcerated women. Know that you continue to be my top priority, and moving forward, we're not letting off the gas pedal.

I proudly held my hand high as I was officially sworn into office on Jan. 1, 2019. I now enter my second term to continue fighting for you and your family in Harrisburg. I greatly value my time as a public servant and I will keep pushing for adequate education funding and jobs that provide a livable wage.

I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

My office can help you with:
• Consumer complaints
• Questions with the Department of Transportation
• Questions about PennDOT
• Questions about state road conditions
• Questions about the state lottery
• Local government officials’ problems with state agencies

I worked closely with the Philadelphia Delegation and our colleagues across the aisle to protect our neighborhoods from stop-and-go by implementing a law to better crackdown on these nuisance establishments. (See page 2 for breakout of law.) I brought the Democratic Policy Committee to Philadelphia and the surrounding areas to discuss expanding protections for union families, existing easement reserves for students and providing dignity for incarcerated women. Know that you continue to be my top priority, and moving forward, we're not letting off the gas pedal.

I proudly held my hand high as I was officially sworn into office on Jan. 1, 2019. I now enter my second term to continue fighting for you and your family in Harrisburg. I greatly value my time as a public servant and I will keep pushing for adequate education funding and jobs that provide a livable wage.

I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

My office can help you with:
• Consumer complaints
• Questions with the Department of Transportation
• Questions about PennDOT
• Questions about state road conditions
• Questions about the state lottery
• Local government officials’ problems with state agencies

I worked closely with the Philadelphia Delegation and our colleagues across the aisle to protect our neighborhoods from stop-and-go by implementing a law to better crackdown on these nuisance establishments. (See page 2 for breakout of law.) I brought the Democratic Policy Committee to Philadelphia and the surrounding areas to discuss expanding protections for union families, existing easement reserves for students and providing dignity for incarcerated women. Know that you continue to be my top priority, and moving forward, we're not letting off the gas pedal.

I proudly held my hand high as I was officially sworn into office on Jan. 1, 2019. I now enter my second term to continue fighting for you and your family in Harrisburg. I greatly value my time as a public servant and I will keep pushing for adequate education funding and jobs that provide a livable wage.

I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Caucus, I traveled across the commonwealth, gave girls of color, and all families. I held a public hearing to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. We've come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won't stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.
In the new legislative session, I will continue standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana. In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana. A person may have this opportunity if they've been convicted from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

I’m constantly fighting for state funds to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that, together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

As a member of the Clean Slate Task Force, I’ve worked with my colleagues from across the aisle to push clean slate board to remove licenses from those areas.

To enhance penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana. A person may have this opportunity if they’ve been convicted from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

Using unclaimed gambling funds to help seniors:

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive & Legislation

First Through Laws & Legislation

Putting Your Family First Through Laws & Legislation

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive in addressing issues impacting our district – issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am proud to have introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family.

Using unlicensed gambling funds to help seniors: Would have redlined unlicensed gambling winnings to the Lottery Fund to further fund programs for seniors, such as Property Tax/Rent Relief.

Protecting older Pennsylvanians from financial scams:

Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Protective Services Act specific to “financial abuse” to better protect for intentional acts of deception and prevent older Pennsylvanians from becoming victims of consumer scams, including identity theft and charity fraud.

Cracking down on squatters:

Worked with Republican State Rep. John Taylor to help police address illegal trespassers in our neighborhoods by creating legislation that would have given officers the ability to remove squatters if he/she has probably cause the person is breaking the law.

Help parents afford higher education:

Would have aidsed parents in the classroom by requiring higher educational credentials to consider a student’s child care expenses

Introducing Clean Slate

In an effort to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to nuisance zone stats. We succeeded with ‘Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 1419) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Clean Slate

In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana.

A person may have this opportunity if they’ve been convicted from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a less than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

I’ve introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family:

Putting Your Family First Through Laws & Legislation

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive in addressing issues impacting our district – issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am proud to have introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family.

Using unlicensed gambling funds to help seniors: Would have redlined unlicensed gambling winnings to the Lottery Fund to further fund programs for seniors, such as Property Tax/Rent Relief.

Protecting older Pennsylvanians from financial scams:

Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Protective Services Act specific to “financial abuse” to better protect for intentional acts of deception and prevent older Pennsylvanians from becoming victims of consumer scams, including identity theft and charity fraud.

Cracking down on squatters:

Worked with Republican State Rep. John Taylor to help police address illegal trespassers in our neighborhoods by creating legislation that would have given officers the ability to remove squatters if he/she has probably cause the person is breaking the law.

Help parents afford higher education:

Would have aidsed parents in the classroom by requiring higher educational credentials to consider a student’s child care expenses

Introducing Clean Slate

In an effort to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to nuisance zone stats. We succeeded with ‘Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 1419) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Clean Slate

In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana.

A person may have this opportunity if they’ve been convicted from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a less than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

I’ve introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family:

Putting Your Family First Through Laws & Legislation

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive in addressing issues impacting our district – issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am proud to have introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family.

Using unlicensed gambling funds to help seniors: Would have redlined unlicensed gambling winnings to the Lottery Fund to further fund programs for seniors, such as Property Tax/Rent Relief.

Protecting older Pennsylvanians from financial scams:

Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Protective Services Act specific to “financial abuse” to better protect for intentional acts of deception and prevent older Pennsylvanians from becoming victims of consumer scams, including identity theft and charity fraud.

Cracking down on squatters:

Worked with Republican State Rep. John Taylor to help police address illegal trespassers in our neighborhoods by creating legislation that would have given officers the ability to remove squatters if he/she has probably cause the person is breaking the law.

Help parents afford higher education:

Would have aidsed parents in the classroom by requiring higher educational credentials to consider a student’s child care expenses

Introducing Clean Slate

In an effort to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to nuisance zone stats. We succeeded with ‘Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 1419) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Clean Slate

In our biggest victory yet for criminal justice reform, we joined Governor Tom Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) to create the Clean Slate law, the first of its kind in the nation, giving individuals a chance to have their records sealed of certain offenses, including those related to marijuana.

A person may have this opportunity if they’ve been convicted from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a less than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a maximum penalty of no more than five years in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial debts.

I’ve introduced the following bills during the 2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family:
During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive in addressing issues impacting our district – issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am proud to have introduced the following bills during the 2017-2018 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family.

Using unsealed gambling funds to help seniors:

- Would have redirected unclaimed gambling winnings to the Lottery Fund to fund further programs for seniors, such as Property Tax/Rent Relief.

Protecting older Pennsylvanians from financial scams:

- Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adult Protective Services Act specific to “financial abuse” to better protect for intentional acts of deception and prevent older Pennsylvanians from becoming victims of consumer scams, including identity theft and charity fraud.

Cracking down on squatters:

- Worked with Republican State Rep. John Taylor to help police address illegal trespassers in our neighborhoods by creating legislation that would give police officers the ability to remove squatters if he/she has probable cause the person is breaking the law.

Help parents afford higher education:

- Would have added parents in the classroom by requiring higher educational credits to consider a student’s child care expenses when determining whether the student has met the requirement for financial aid.

Introducing new ideas for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session, I continued standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today for a world of work:

- Would have given students a second chance to earn a high school diploma.

Pushing for more daycares at work:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.

Strengthening child care assistance:

- Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Assistance Program to include a child care component when reviewing an application for assistance.

Helping parents afford higher education:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.

Secured $1.2 Million to Strengthen the 192nd District:

- In an effort to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to mass violence stop-go areas. We stood proudly with Governor Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate an end to nuisance stop-and-gos. We stood proudly with Gov. Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate an end to nuisance stop-and-gos. We stood proudly with Gov. Wolf last year as he signed our legislation (H.B. 157) into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate saturated nuisance market areas, where violations are subject to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Protecting older Pennsylvanians from financial scams:

- Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adult Protective Services Act specific to “financial abuse” to better protect for intentional acts of deception and prevent older Pennsylvanians from becoming victims of consumer scams, including identity theft and charity fraud.

Cracking down on squatters:

- Worked with Republican State Rep. John Taylor to help police address illegal trespassers in our neighborhoods by creating legislation that would give police officers the ability to remove squatters if he/she has probable cause the person is breaking the law.

Help parents afford higher education:

- Would have added parents in the classroom by requiring higher educational credits to consider a student’s child care expenses when determining whether the student has met the requirement for financial aid.

Introducing new ideas for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session, I continued standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today for a world of work:

- Would have given students a second chance to earn a high school diploma.

Pushing for more daycares at work:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.

Strengthening child care assistance:

- Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Assistance Program to include a child care component when reviewing an application for assistance.

Helping parents afford higher education:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.

Introducing new ideas for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session, I continued standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today for a world of work:

- Would have given students a second chance to earn a high school diploma.

Pushing for more daycares at work:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.

Strengthening child care assistance:

- Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Assistance Program to include a child care component when reviewing an application for assistance.

Helping parents afford higher education:

- Would have created a state-funded daycare program to allow for single mother’s to work.
In the new legislative session, I will continue standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today

Helping parents afford higher education:

Creating solutions that put you and your family:

In addressing issues impacting our district — issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Strengthening child care assistance: Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Subsidy Program to allow a parent, who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or an ungraded offense carrying a sentence of two years or more in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a lesser than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a year or more in prison, and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Cracking down on squatters: Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Property Tax/Rent Relief to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Using unclaimed gambling funds to help seniors: For you and your family:

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive & Legislation

Putting Your Family First Through Laws & Legislation

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive and creating solutions that put you and your family first.

20 Amendments Introduced

I’m constantly fighting to make bands to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Introduced Laws

Opting in to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to nonsense stop-and-go laws. We avoided this trap when the Governor signed into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate areas where enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Strengthen the 192nd

I’m constantly fighting for state funds to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

In the new legislative session, I will continue standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today

Helping parents afford higher education:

Creating solutions that put you and your family:

In addressing issues impacting our district — issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Strengthening child care assistance: Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Subsidy Program to allow a parent, who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or an ungraded offense carrying a sentence of two years or more in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a lesser than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a year or more in prison, and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Cracking down on squatters: Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Property Tax/Rent Relief to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Using unclaimed gambling funds to help seniors: For you and your family:

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive and creating solutions that put you and your family first.

20 Amendments Introduced

I’m constantly fighting to make bands to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Introduce Laws

Opting in to protect our communities from senseless violence, I fought alongside my Democratic colleagues to put an end to nonsense stop-and-go laws. We avoided this trap when the Governor signed into law, allowing the state Liquor Control Board to designate areas where enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Strengthen the 192nd

I’m constantly fighting for state funds to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

In the new legislative session, I will continue standing up for the jobs of tomorrow.

Important this bill was to prepare the young minds of today

Helping parents afford higher education:

Creating solutions that put you and your family:

In addressing issues impacting our district — issues that specifically affect our middle neighborhoods and all of our vulnerable populations.

I am pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Strengthening child care assistance: Would have changed the requirements for Pennsylvania’s Child Care Subsidy Program to allow a parent, who has been convicted of a misdemeanor or an ungraded offense carrying a sentence of two years or more in prison; and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Additionally, it allows automatic sealing of records for second- or third-degree misdemeanor offenses that resulted in a lesser than two-year prison sentence if a person has been free from conviction for 10 years for an offense that resulted in a year or more in prison, and paid all court-ordered financial obligations related to charges that resulted in non-convictions.

Cracking down on squatters: Would have added a definition to the state’s Older Adults Property Tax/Rent Relief to enhanced penalties, fines and suspensions, and allow the board to remove licenses from those areas.

Using unclaimed gambling funds to help seniors: For you and your family:

During my first term, I made it my mission to stay proactive and creating solutions that put you and your family first.

20 Amendments Introduced

I’m constantly fighting to make bands to strengthen our communities and give us the best chance to succeed. I’m pleased to announce that together in 2017 and 2018, we secured a total of $1.2 million in grants to spread across the Overbrook, Carroll Park, Wynnewood and Haddington neighborhoods.

Legislation: Working For You in Harrisburg

2017-18 Legislative Session to improve the quality of life for you and your family:

20 Resolutions Prime-Sponsored

9 Bills Co-Sponsored
As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Subcommittee of the Commonwealth’s African American Legislative Black Caucus, I traveled across the commonwealth, giving voice to the voices, stand up for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with respect and dignity.

We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve. We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

My first term as your state representative came and went! I’m truly honored to be serving the district for my second term to continue fighting for you and your family in Harrisburg.

I proudly held my hand high as I was officially sworn into office on Jan. 1, 2019. Even though it’s a new legislative session, my priorities remain the same. I will keep pushing for adequate education funding and jobs that provide a livable wage; work to pass common-sense gun reform; advocate for a fair and just response to this ruling, focusing on the long-term impact for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Further crippling our efforts is the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision on Janus v. AFSCME that threatens workers rights and benefits. I am a public hearing in August at District 1199 Union Hall in Philadelphia and the surrounding areas to discuss expanding protections for union families, existing wage and income assistance for students and providing dignity for incarcerated women.

President Obama’s visit to Philadelphia was a great opportunity for us to have a conversation with the Delawareans delegation. Together, we can’t stop working together to strengthen our communities and our country.

Incarcerated Women’s Act

We pushed to enact the justice reform conversation and are discussing how unions protect workers, long-term impact for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are paid 68 cents and 56 cents for every dollar paid to men. The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

As we work to pass the Incarcerated Women’s Act, require state prisons to provide free feminine hygiene products to all female inmates, offer a free monthly phone call to incarcerated parents, and create a system to help inmates register for all available benefits before release.

We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Incarcerated Women’s Act

We pushed to enact the justice reform conversation and are discussing how unions protect workers, long-term impact for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are paid 68 cents and 56 cents for every dollar paid to men. The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

As we work to pass the Incarcerated Women’s Act, require state prisons to provide free feminine hygiene products to all female inmates, offer a free monthly phone call to incarcerated parents, and create a system to help inmates register for all available benefits before release.

We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Incarcerated Women’s Act

We pushed to enact the justice reform conversation and are discussing how unions protect workers, long-term impact for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are paid 68 cents and 56 cents for every dollar paid to men. The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

As we work to pass the Incarcerated Women’s Act, require state prisons to provide free feminine hygiene products to all female inmates, offer a free monthly phone call to incarcerated parents, and create a system to help inmates register for all available benefits before release.

We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Incarcerated Women’s Act

We pushed to enact the justice reform conversation and are discussing how unions protect workers, long-term impact for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are paid 68 cents and 56 cents for every dollar paid to men. The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latinas, who are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men.

As we work to pass the Incarcerated Women’s Act, require state prisons to provide free feminine hygiene products to all female inmates, offer a free monthly phone call to incarcerated parents, and create a system to help inmates register for all available benefits before release.

We’ve come too far to be simply kicked to the curb. I won’t stop until all women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.
As a chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Subcommittee of the Pennsylvania Legislative Black Caucus, I travel across the commonwealth, give a voice to the voices, stand up for women of color, and fight to ensure they are treated as equals.

Over the past two years, I’ve fought to close the gender wage gap for girls. It’s outrageous that in 2019, women in Pennsylvania are paid 79 cents for every dollar paid to men. The disparity is even worse for women of color and Latino women, who are paid 80 cents and 65 cents for every dollar, respectively. Even the math, those women employed full-time in the commonwealth is the lowest combined total of more than $19 billion every year.

Further crippling our efforts is the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME, that threatens workers’ rights across the state.

As chairwoman of the Women and Girls of Color Committee, I’m fighting to make sure women and girls are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

Next week, I led a public hearing at District 1199 Union Hall to talk about the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in the case of Janus v. AFSCME. I’m fighting to make sure women and girls of color are treated as equals.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.

I’m also fighting to make sure women and girls of color are treated with the respect and dignity they deserve.