Dear Friends:

One of the most important aspects of my job as a state representative is helping citizens deal with state government.

Often citizens don't know exactly where to turn for the services provided by the state. Figuring out which agency can help with a particular problem or question and how to contact the right department can be a challenge.

In this brochure, I have listed some of the ways in which my office may be of help to you. Please don't hesitate to call me with your comments, questions or problems.

Sincerely,

Jordan A. Harris
State Representative

My office can help you with:

- Car registrations, special tags, titles and license applications
- Information on financial assistance for higher education
- Unemployment compensation problems
- Birth certificate applications
- Pennsylvania income tax problems
- Problems with the Department of Human Services (food stamps, income assistance)
- Requests for literature of all kinds – bills, regulations, statutes, Pennsylvania maps, senior citizen information, student aid information, etc.
- Citations from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for outstanding local accomplishments and family milestones
- Complaints or questions about utilities and the PUC
- SEPTA Senior (65+) Bus Passes
- Tattered, Torn or worn American flag collection

- Consumer complaints
- Complaints about state road conditions
- Problems or questions about PennDOT
- Tours of the State Capitol for individuals or groups
- Disability plates and placards
- PACE cards for senior citizens
- Complaints and problems with insurance companies
- Property Tax/Rent Rebate problems or questions
- Problems or questions about the state lottery
- Local government officials' problems with state agencies

Any problem with state government!
