The Policy Committee has hosted over 30 hearings on such topics as climate and digital currency, job, broadband infrastructure,omic health care, education, health and safety in transportation, expanding passenger rail, and more.

We’ve had many difficult conversations and have been working with members and community advocates to help. Keep an eye on the committee’s website and social media accounts to follow how I’m working to put laws and access the state’s communities.

Defending Democracy

The November 2020 election was the most recent opportunity to turn the page on the Trump administration and ensure a future that prioritizes families, workers, and local businesses.

Public Health/Infrastructure Preparedness: $825 million

We visited every corner of the state to discuss how PA Rescue Plan investments would help support these efforts and support workers.

Investing in front-line workers with hazard pay was also shown on the Scranton and State college stops of the PA Rescue Plan tour.

Making sure every Pennsylvanian has affordable childcare is a key component of our PA Rescue Plan. We worked hard to work with Governor Wolf and the legislature to make childcare affordable for all families.

Milestones and Achievements

Rep. Bizzarro presents a citation recognizing the McKean Hose Company.

Rep. Bizzarro presents Tyler Tuszynski with a citation for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout, an achievement that many students work hard to reach.

Reps. McCormick from Erie Beer Company stopped by to say hello and talk about the impact the company has had on their community.

Beth McCormick, a local business owner, stopped by to say hello and talk about the billion-dollar impact that beer has in Pennsylvania. Her family-owned business across Northwest PA and beyond.

Some proposed investments include:*

- $500 million for Workforce Development
- $1 billion for Support for Families
- $826 million for Public Health Infrastructure Preparedness
- $168 million for Workforce Development

Toursing Reading was an opportunity to see how investing in businesses and community revitalization can help PA attract national and international companies to set up operations here, ultimately generating more jobs and opportunities for residents.

The PA Rescue Plan

To help states recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, the federal government provided more than $27 billion in funding to Pennsylvania for its recovery efforts. My Caucus was proud tocraft a plan that prioritizes families, workers, and local businesses.

This session, with bringing innovative ideas to the forefront. This post takes me across the state and helps me gain valuable perspective that I can bring back to our community and to Harrisburg. Even more importantly, it gives me a seat at the table and a voice. I’m the first Erie community member to serve in House leadership as chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

I’m happy to be able to honor, recognize and celebrate the milestones of individuals, organizations and teams who are in or out of the state. I’m proud to issue a citation for outstanding community achievements.

I’m proud to stand with House Majority Leader Frank H. Dermody, Lt. Governor John Fetterman, and Speaker of the House Robin O. Vos in announcing the PA Rescue Plan.

The PA Rescue Plan will support the people and businesses of Pennsylvania. It’s a comprehensive, bipartisan plan that prioritizes families, workers, and local businesses. We visit every corner of the state to discuss the impact of using recovery dollars to help get people back to work and looking at innovative solutions that could make a generational impact on Pennsylvanians.

Defending Democracy

The November 2020 election was the most secure in Pennsylvania history. While election officials in Allegheny County had asked that the legislature make changes that would allow for a smoother process for elections at the polls and for the state court that followed, extreme legislators teamed up to deny those calls for improvements, and some went even further by attacking and undermining the outcome and taking to social media with baseless arguments.

They cast doubt on a fundamental aspect of our democracy. After hosting two House Policy Committee hearings and securing feedback from state officials, bipartisan county election officials, members of Congress, professors, and organizations, House Democrats are taking action to enhance voter protections. To support this, the PA Rescue Plan is available at: www.pahouse.com/parescueplan.

The PA Rescue Plan

To help states recover from the COVID-19 pandemic, the federal government provided more than $7 billion in funding to Pennsylvania for its recovery efforts. My Caucus was proud to craft a plan that prioritizes families, workers, and local businesses.

Defending Democracy

The November 2020 election was the most secure election in Pennsylvania history. With record turnout across Pennsylvania, Speaker Nile C. Shipley, Jr. championed legislation to make voting easier and safer for Pennsylvanians.

Putting power in the hands of Pennsylvania and their communities is what I stand for. We’ve had many difficult conversations and have been working with members and communities across Pa. to keep in touch with the committees, advocated and social media accounts to follow how I’m working to get fair and access the entire Commonwealth.

The Policy Committee has hosted over 50 hearings on such topics as defense and digital economy, health, broadband, agriculture, women’s healthcare, education, health and safety in transportation, expanding passenger rail, and more.
